NOBEL PRIZE GOES TO WILSON

Award Carries With It Great Honor and $40,000 in Money

Roosevelt and Root Only Other Americans Receiving Prize

(By Associated Press)

Copenhagen, December 7.—Announcement is made that the Nobel peace prize will be conferred on President Wilson of the United States on December 10th.

The Nobel peace prize carries with it a grant of about $40,000, which is one fifth of the annual interest of about $9,000,000 left for that purpose by Alfred B. Nobel, the Swedish scientist and inventor of dynamite, who died in 1896.

The only two Americans who have in the past received the Nobel peace prize were Theodore Roosevelt, in 1906, and Elihu Root, in 1912.

BURGLARS VISIT MRS. HAMON HOME STEAL LETTERS

Carefully Planned Crime Comes To Light in Chicago

Personal Papers Are Carried Off by Intruders

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, December 7.—Four unidentified men forced an entrance last night into an apartment building here, where the widow of the late Jake L. Hamon lives.

The men seized a quantity of personal papers and 75 letters received for Mrs. Hamon during her absence at Ardmore, Okla., where her husband was mysteriously shot to death.

The men took nothing else. Actions of the men indicated that the seizure had been carefully planned, police said.

POLICE BREAK UP HAYWOOD MEETING IN YOUNGSTOWN

(By Associated Press)
Youngstown, O., December 6.—Police here tonight refused to permit William A. "Big Bill" Haywood, I. W. W. leader, to speak at a meeting in Armory Hall and later broke up a meeting in an outlying hall when another attempt was made to have him address an audience.

Before leaving the city Haywood declared he would return at a later date and speak in spite of the police.

BILL FOR LIBERAL CREDIT TO FARMERS

Washington, December 6.—Revival of the War Finance Corporation and action by the Federal Reserve Board permitting extension by banks of "liberal" credits to farmers would be directed in a joint resolution drafted late today by the Senate Agricultural Committee.

Economy in Governmental Expenditures and Workable Budget System Advocated.

Philippine Independence, Loan To Armenia and Revision Of Tax Laws Urged

Has Faith In The Future

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 7.—President Wilson's concrete recommendations to Congress in his annual message today were:

Revision of the tax laws with simplification of the income and profits taxes.

Independence for the Philippines.

A loan to Armenia.

Economy in government appropriations and expenditures and creation of a "workable budget system."

Cold storage and other laws affecting the cost of living and the Federal licensing of corporations as recommended in previous messages.

Rehabilitation and training of disabled soldiers and sailors.

The President did not endorse a bonus.

Nowhere does the President refer to the League of Nations or the peace treaty fight except perhaps by inference in his opening words when he quoted Abraham Lincoln: "Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith let us dare to do our duty as we understand it."

At its close the President wrote a paragraph which might be regarded as a valedictory, saying:

"I have not so much laid before you a series of recommendations as sought to utter a confession of faith—of the faith in which I was bred and which it is my solemn purpose to stand by until my last fighting day. I believe this to be the faith of America, the faith of the future and of all the victories which await national action in the days to come, whether in America or elsewhere.

Democracy, the President said, is being put upon its final test.

"The old world," said he, "is just now suffering from a wanton rejection of the principle of democracy and a substitution of a principle of autocracy as asserted in the name but without the authority and sanction of the multitude.

"This is the time of all others when democracy should prove its purity and its spiritual power to prevail. It is surely the manifest destiny of the United States to lead in the attempt to make this spirit prevail.

Two ways "in which the United States can assist to accomplish this great object" were outlined by the President. They were:

"First—By offering the example within our own borders of the will and power of democracy to make and enforce laws which are unquestionably just.

"Second—By standing for right and justice as toward individual nations.

"The United States cannot refuse this role of champion without putting the stigma of rejection upon the great and devoted men who brought its government into existence."

The President's message was transmitted by messenger, the President adhering to his decision not to address Congress in person.

Secretary Tumulty was among the spectators in the Senate, occupying a seat on the floor. Public galleries again were filled and several diplomats were present.

PALACE WHERE AUSTRIAN ROYALTY LIVED IS NOW A WAREHOUSE

Exterior and interior views of the emperor's palace as it is now utilized. The spacious royal palace at Vienna, Austria, where once the emperors of the dual empire lived in luxury and entertained the German emperor and other monarchs is now being treated quite rudely. It has been converted into a warehouse and truckmen wrestle baggage around its floors.

POLICE UNABLE TO SOLVE CRIME AT YOUNGSTOWN

Woman Suspected of Killing Children and Shooting Self

Burned House, Charring Bodies Of Murdered Children

(By Associated Press)
Youngstown, O., December 7.—Police were still unable to solve today the tragedy enacted near Hubbard, Ohio, Sunday night, when Mrs. Thomas Koehler was shot in the arm and her two children shot and then burned in the flames of their home.

Police say that Harry Collier, held in the Warren jail, told them when arrested that when he approached the Koehler house to visit Mrs. Koehler, she rushed from the house and exclaimed she had shot the children.

Both Collier and the woman have refused to talk since then. Mrs. Koehler's story of a robber who shot her and then fired the house was discredited, police say, by the finding of her revolver upon the remains of the children, and by the discovery of a bullet in the head of one of the children.

The revolver had been purchased by Mrs. Koehler's husband at her request.

CABINET PLACES

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 7.—The League of Nations and cabinet selections were talked over by Senator Harding and his advisers today in another series of conferences.

On the League issue Mr. Harding consulted representatives of both the mild reservationists and the irreconcilables, conferring first with Senator Spencer, of Missouri, a mild reservationist, and later with Senator Johnson, of California, leader of the irreconcilables.

Mr. Harding avoided the crowds that gathered around his office and committee room at the capitol by remaining during the day at the residence of E. B. McLean, his host, during his visit.

Senator Fall, of New Mexico, and former Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts, visited Mr. Harding. Senator Fall had spent the night at the McLean residence and his close association with the President-elect revived rumors he was being considered for an important cabinet appointment.

In the gossip about the capitol he was mentioned variously for state and interior department portfolios.

POLICE DOUBT LURID STORY

Newspaper Man Claiming Interview With Hamon Woman Closely Quizzed by Officers

Writer Refuses to Reveal Whereabouts of Woman Sought For Hamon Shooting

(By Associated Press)

San Antonio, Texas, December 7.—P. M. Ross, a local newspaper man, who last night sent out dispatches from here saying he had conversed in San Antonio with Miss Clara Smith, sought in connection with the fatal shooting of Jake L. Hamon, of Ardmore, Oklahoma, and declared she had given him a statement admitting she shot Hamon, was taken into custody by police early today, questioned for an hour and released.

The newspaper man was quizzed closely, and at the conclusion of the conference, Captain James Duncan, of the police department stated he was inclined to doubt the man's story.

The story told by Ross of his interview with Miss Smith, according to police, followed somewhat her statements to E. W. Sallis, of Dallas, the chauffeur who drove Miss Smith from Dallas to Cisco.

Ross, who was an employee of the San Antonio News, said he had heard in a hotel last Saturday that Miss Smith was in San Antonio, and through acquaintance during his previous employment in Oklahoma, recognized her.

While a companion fixed two flat tires on Miss Smith's auto, Ross said he took her to a nearby farmhouse and there, he said, she told him she had killed Hamon "for the sake of their son Jack."

According to Ross, she declared, she was willing to face any just judge or any jury of women. Ross, according to the police, refused to tell the whereabouts of the young woman, asserting he would go to jail first.

GREGG RESIGNS PRESIDENCY OF CITY COUNCIL

Motion To Make President-protem Brownell Chairman Is Held Over.

Mayor Dahl's Report Of Fines, Costs and Licenses Is One of Largest.

At the regular session of the city council Monday evening with Brownell, Coffman, Hindler, Reichert and Rowe in their chairs, President of the Council Nye Gregg resigned in order to fill the office of Probate Judge to which he has been elected. In tendering his resignation President Gregg quoted the city ordinance in which states that a member of the council cannot hold any other office.

A motion to name President-protem Brownell president was held over until the next meeting when City Solicitor Troy T. Junk stated that he was not able to advise council at once on the proper legal step to take to fill such a vacancy.

Mr. Gregg's resignation will take effect at once. The council gave him a vote of thanks for the pleasant dealings they had experienced with Gregg in the chair.

The report of the service committee in looking after the sewer on the south end of North street and on Elm street was heard and approved.

Secretary George H. Hitchcock asked council to transfer $500 from the general fund to the safety fund in order to pay the salaries of the police and firemen. Council granted the request.

A minute after this action had been taken one of the largest amounts ever handed over to the general fund was given by Mayor V. J. Dahl in his report of funds collected for the month of November. His report totaled $717.00 and was divided as follows: Fines $628.95; costs $95.05; licenses $19.00.

Councilman Reichert took the floor and asked on behalf of Frank Haines residing on Washington avenue, that a street light be placed at the front of his home. It was declared that there is a long stretch of Washington avenue in complete darkness because of the distance between the lights at the corners of Court and the avenue and East street with the Avenue.

The motion was made that the Service Director be instructed to place a light at the place desired.

Councilman Rowe made a motion that an investigation of places in city needing lights be made and the corner of Wilson avenue and Gregg street was cited as one. This was referred to the Service Director.

Traffic Signal Standards
Service Director Tracy reported to council that he and Secretary Hitchcock had made a careful survey of the council records and that the books failed to show where an ordinance had been passed giving him authority to make a contract with The Washington Gas and Electric Light Company to supply the traffic signal standards just installed with lights.

The ordinance was passed by council to make a contract with the light company for one light in each standard.

DELIVERS SERMON ON 'FOOL'S DEATH'

Evangelist Thompson took for his subject, "The Fool's Death" at the Church of Christ Monday night and preached one of the best sermons delivered during the revival services.

With eloquence and conviction he portrayed to the large audience the picture, given by the Savior, of the foolish man who filled his barn and trusted in material possessions and left God out of his program. His sermon made a profound impression on all present, and three persons acknowledged their faith in Christ.

Mr. Eddins is proving himself to be a most efficient chorus leader and the singing of the large choir is contributing much to the success of the meetings. The solo each evening not only is pleasing, but always brings a message.

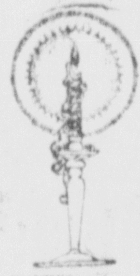

Dr. Thompson has changed the subject "From Jerusalem to Jericho" from Tuesday to Wednesday evening, which will be known as "Lodge Night" when a special invitation is given to the various orders of the city.

The Subject Tuesday evening is "Fixing a Day."

FOUR INJURED MEN ARE RECOVERING

Dewey Mercer is Taken Home From Hospital and Frank Mercer Will Leave Within a Short Time.

The two Mercer brothers, Frank and Dewey of Sabina, who were taken to the Fayette Hospital Sunday afternoon following an automobile accident at the Rattlesnake Bridge west of this city, in which their other brother, Sam, and John Shadley were also injured, have almost completely recovered.

Dewey Mercer was removed to his home Monday. He was suffering with bruises which did not threaten seriously.

Frank Mercer is still in the hospital receiving attention to his right eye. It was believed at first that he would lose the sight but all danger seems to have passed.

The other men, Sam Mercer and John Shadley are also making fast recovery. Mercer from an injured shoulder and Shadley from scalp wounds.

BEGGAR ORDERED OUT OF THE CITY

A beggar who had been annoying citizens generally for several days by persistent and uncourteous application for funds, was ordered out of the city, Tuesday morning, when he ran a foul of Chief D. L. Moore.

The man had entered a shop and became annoying. A little later he was found by Chief Moore and given ten minutes to get out of the city. The fellow claimed to have a withered arm and is believed to have collected a great amount of money locally during the past few days.

It is understood that the begging nuisance will receive closer attention from now onward, and the action of the Chief in forcing the professional beggar to move onward will meet with general approval.

KINGSTON BANK ADJUSTS AFFAIRS

Business at the First National Bank is moving along in its usual channels as the matter of straightening out affairs since the robbery progresses and excitement dies down. On Friday the bank received a $45,000 check for the burglary insurance, which goes a long way in reducing the loss sustained in the holdup.

Clyde E. Myers, cashier for many years, who resigned, has turned over all his property to the bank to cover losses of unaccounted for bonds, and the bank is asking all persons who hold receipts for Liberty bonds, or bonds for registration or exchange, to present them, so that the records may be checked.

National bank examiners found the accounts all correct to a penny and declared the institution to be sound.—Kingston Tribune.

GOT RELIEF AFTER HAVING BRONCHIAL TROUBLE 20 YEARS

Choked up so bad that you could hear him wheeze across the room

COUGH WAS VERY BAD

"I've spent a lot of money trying to get relief from bronchial trouble and have paid some pretty high prices for medicine too, but never got as much good from all of it as I have received from just one bottle of Earle's Hypo-Cod.

"Of course I have only taken this tonic a little while, but it works like magic and others who have noticed my improvement proves what I say. "I had bronchial trouble and a bad cough and would get so choked up at times I could hardly breathe. I would choke up and wheeze so bad you could hear me clear across the room. I would cough and spit up so much phlegm it was awful and it made me actually vomit. For twenty years I have grown steadily worse until I was so nervous, weak and worn out with it I could hardly keep going. But that is an old story now, for since I've taken Hypo-Cod a few days the dust and dirt around the shops where it flies thick and heavy doesn't bother me anymore and my cough is practically cured. I'm gaining weight, eat hearty again, breath and feel better than I have in six years. I got my brother to take some and a number of friends are also getting splendid results so when you ask me—I say—"Get Earle's Hypo-Cod down at the drug store and it will do the work." declared Mr. J. A. Taylor, Machinist at the Penn. Ry. Shops in Columbus, and living at 6 Clark Place.

Earle's Hypo-Cod contains an excellent formula which you surely should read when in your drug store. Ask the druggists about it. Take home a bottle and see how it does the work. Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns.—Advt.

A Senator's Farewell

Men sometimes say strange things. Especially when moved by deep emotions or when more or less awed by the conditions and circumstances.

For instance Senator Harding, now president-elect of the United States, in what is probably his last speech in the upper branch of Congress, among other things, said: "If one could only direct his own political fortunes to his liking, I should have preferred my membership here to any others a citizen may hold in this republic or elsewhere in the world."

Of course we do not take Senator Harding seriously when he makes that statement. We must read it in the light of conditions as they existed down there at Washington Monday under the roof of the great capitol building. It was a good-bye speech of the Senator's intended to be, as it was, very eulogistic of the Senate.

Senator Harding owes much to his colleagues in the Senate who assert allegiance to the Republican party. He is indebted to them, to a very great extent for his nomination and for the existence of political conditions which brought about his election.

Senator Harding is a man of deep feeling. He is a man who appreciates his friends and is not, we believe, over-ambitious. He feels grateful to his friends and is not averse to say so. That's an admirable trait too, and one which is a guarantee of good character.

No doubt, when Senator Harding spoke in the Senate on Monday he felt all the deep emotions of gratitude and friendship and that he had difficulty in giving expression, in words, to those feelings is very probably even acknowledging his great ability.

But if he really would rather have remained in the Senate than be elected president, he gave no evidence of it in the primary campaign or in the election campaign. He could have prevented being elected president by speaking a word or two, but he left those words unspoken, much to the disappointment of his opponents.

Words are such useless instruments any way to express the deeper feelings, it's no wonder Senator Harding was compelled to go a bit strong to give an idea of just how much he thought of his friends in the Senate.

It was a pleasing farewell any way.

Don't Expect Too Much

Among people who are inclined to "jump to conclusions" there is some considerable misunderstanding over market conditions.

We would, all of us, do well to remember that because the market price of the commodity in which we are personally interested—our farm products or our manufactured article—undergoes a sharp decline we need not expect the same decline in every other commodity on the market. Different articles are subject to different market conditions. The same laws do not operate to the same extent on all commodities or if they do operate they do not operate in the same degree or produce the same results.

The conditions which force down the price of corn and hogs do not, unfortunately, force down the price of woolen goods. Even a drop in the price of wool does not always force down the price of woolen cloth. Because the price of wire fencing falls it does not follow that eggs or cotton goods will fall at the same rate, or even fall at all.

We must expect market prices in their descent to do all sorts of stunts—spiral twists, nose spins, stationary glides and even, some ascents at times, to get a better angle for continuing the descent.

It does not follow, necessarily, that, because the man who is offering to sell to you does not place a price on his commodity which evidences as considerable a drop from high levels, as your selling price evidences, he is guilty of extortion.

Remember always that we are, each one of us, in our activities, operating in different fields along different lines and subject to the decrees of interrupted natural laws and different business conditions.

We must, all of us, sooner or later, drop down a notch or two, or more in some cases, in our selling prices and in our living costs too. But we must be patient and, above all, be understanding of the fact that all these drops will not—cannot—come at once and we, in our business are in the first line, give the fellows in the rear time to come up.

POETRY FOR TODAY

GOOD OLD DAD

It's father's time of year, this is,
When the days are cold and the blizzards bliz,
And the frost is on the pane,
The opened window down he slams,
And shivers out of his pajamas,
But he likes it, in the main.

It's father's duty, bless his soul
To shovel on the mornin' coal
Defying winter's storm.
First out of bed and cold, but say,
He's glad to do it any day—
Just so the kids are warm.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Mrs. Elizabeth Ballard Robinson hospitably threw open her home for a most delightful meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution Monday afternoon.

Large, shaggy chrysanthemums were in tasteful arrangement throughout the rooms, and a number of guests enjoyed the afternoon with the Daughters.

Mrs. Annette Rowe, President, conducted the opening business session, calling the attention of the Chapter to Friday as its day for selling Red Cross seats. Four new members, Mrs. Martha Mark, Mrs. Margaret Colwell, Misses Helen Dixon and Josephine Hidy, were welcomed by the Chapter. Mrs. Ada Mark Jones, in a wonderful talk on "The West through a Washingtonian's Eyes"—too the Daughters on a fascinating trip and held them enthralled by the vividness of her work pictures of the scenic glory of the West.

Mrs. Jones featured the three Parks, The Yellowstone, The Yosemite and the Grand Canyon. She was so impressed with Yellowstone, the first visit, that she wondered what was left to be seen in the Yosemite and with the sublimity and grandeur which awed the spectators in the second park, most marvelous of all was to her was the Grand Canyon. Only those who have seen the canyon have any conception of it. Mrs. Jones was doubly fortunate in being of the few who take the long "Hermit Trail" and spend the night in the depth of the Canyon, seeing both moon and sunrise and the great canyon one glorious mass of color—every color of the artist's palette in marvelous blend.

The Chapter felt deeply indebted to Mrs. Jones for her fine descriptive talk and also to Mrs. Elva H. Kelley, who favored it with a piano solo, "The Whistling Yankee"—a military march, sparkling in its melody and all the more interest attached to it from the fact that it was Mrs. Kelley's own composition. The rendition was most effective.

The serving of a delicious repast at the close of the program stimulated sociability and the guests lingered late in the afternoon.

The hostesses with Mrs. Robinson were Mesdames Howat, Millikan, Ustick, Browne, Hoskins, Haynes, Wilkin, Misses Montross Parrett, Howat, McCafferty, Anna Bell.

The M. H. G. Class enjoyed to the fullest degree the annual December meeting and Christmas supper with the teacher, Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins Monday night.

Forty were seated for a tempting supper, its attendant decorations of superb chrysanthemums in yellow and bronze tints delighting the eye as fully as the delectable viands the appetite.

Following the merry supper hour there was a delightful toast hour, introduced by Mrs. Hopkins, gracefully filling the role of toast mistress, with an appreciative toast to absent members.

Mrs. Frank S. Jackson, President of the class made an inspiring little talk for future efforts in line with those successfully carried out in the past year.

In a toast, humorous in its vein, Mr. Hopkins happily toasted the class members and women in general Mr. A. J. Walker, Assistant S. S. Superintendent responded briefly and also Mrs. Walker. The S. S. officers are each year included in the Christmas supper.

A most interesting letter sent by Mrs. Gage to the class was read and appreciated.

The evening was one of rounded out pleasure, including delightful reading by Mrs. Farquhar and music.

A brief business session resulted in the annual election of officers, Mrs. Frank Jackson, President; Mrs. W. H. Lipsett, Vice President, Miss Hazel Moore, Secretary, Miss Wilma Hamer, assistant; Miss Esther Leland, Treasurer; Miss Elita McHenry, assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stafford, assisted by their daughters, Mrs. Ralph Allen and Miss Annette Stafford, entertained with an elaborate and enjoyable dinner, Sunday honoring Mr.

J. E. Hare and his bride, formerly Mrs. Mary Tway, the occasion one of marked pleasure.

Beautiful pink chrysanthemums were effectively used in decoration. The guest list included: Mrs. Mary Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rowe, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Rose of Staunton; Mrs. Clara Fisher daughter Miss Mary of Sabina; Mr. Edgar Pepple of Wilmington; Mrs. Henry Mark, Mrs. M. J. VanPelt, Mrs. N. M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Rowe of this city.

The Masonic Social Club sponsors its second dance in the opening session on Thursday night, December the ninth.

The New Year's Eve dance for which plans are already underway, will be an "Old Clothes and Carnival Dance"—a jolly affair of masks and harlequin features.

Messrs. Harry and Charles Pugsley were week end guests in Cincinnati, and attended a private dance at the Sinton Hotel, Saturday evening.

EXTREME DESCRIBES THIS FASHION SUIT

This striking American fashion is developed along new lines which delightfully accentuate the figure. It is of biscuit colored broadcloth with bandings of nutria on collar, cuffs and bottom of the skirt, and even on the trim of the brown velvet hat there is a bit of the fur. FORD COMPLETES PLANS FOR ROAD

D. T. & I. to be Used to Full Capacity and Radical Improvements Made.

Detroit, Mich., December 7.—Definite announcement has been made by the new owners of The D. T. & I. Railroad that complete and comprehensive plans for improving the system have been made, and that the work of carrying these plans into execution is under way.

While it is the wish of Henry Ford that the system be placed in condition to assure Detroit and environs an adequate supply of coal at all times, he has much broader views of the future activities of the road and expects to use it for the development of the entire territory through which it passes giving best possible service to all points of the system.

It is also officially announced that the road will be used to full capacity at all times, the number and speed of trains being the highest obtainable with service and safety.

Mr. Ford has made a personal inspection of all grades and bridges over the entire 454 miles of main track. He went out with repair gangs and examined every unit of the road's motive power, making decisions about new rails, new shops, new equipment and for betterment of the road generally.

In purchasing the road Mr. Ford was not only mindful of the fact that it is a direct line between Michigan and the great coal fields of southern Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia, but is crossed by 25 other lines uniting the east and west and offering unlimited interchange facilities. Also that the line touches many industrial centers and passes through some of the richest agricultural territory in the world.

DECEMBER TAX COLLECTION IS ON SOME SUGGESTIONS

The Treasurer's books are now open for the collection of the December installment of taxes for the year 1920. In addition to the Special Road, Ditch and Street tax this year the County Treasurer is required to collect for street flushing. In order to facilitate the work and avoid the taxpayers having to wait at the window the Treasurer and his deputies have taken extra time and worked diligently and besides writing the regular receipts, have written all these special receipts.

If the tax payers will observe the following general suggestions it will be a great help to the Treasurer.

Bring or send your last tax receipt or a complete list of your property. Call for tax in name of owner on April 11, 1920. Property stands on our books in the name of owner at that time and remains unchanged during the tax year.

In giving information over the telephone mistakes are liable to occur. It is better to make request through the mail and in so doing designate the property clearly, in whose name, in what township, number of acres; if in city or village give number of lot. If parties asking information would simply send signed blank checks with the above description the treasurer will forward receipts and thereby save the tax payer some money and save the treasurer time. Always send stamps for reply.

When checks given for taxes are not paid on presentation at the bank, taxes will be restored to the duplicate with out notice.

Examine your tax receipts carefully and see that all your property appears thereon.

While every effort will be made to accommodate the tax-paying public, they are urgently requested to call early to make payments, thereby saving themselves, as well as the treasurer, the inconvenience caused by the rush at the close of the collection period.

HIGH BASKET BALL PROSPECTUS GOOD

Gym Floor is Thick With Candidates Working out under Coach Moorehead For the Blue and White Quintet.

If material on hand is indicative of the team which will be moulded together by Coach Moorehead Washington High School will be represented on the basketball floor this season by a fast squad.

Steady practice started last week led by Captain "Red" Dorn the floor was swamped with candidates for the team. Willard Porritt and Tom Rogers, just fresh from their football victories, have reported for workouts. They were letter men last year. Rogers will occupy a forward while "Barney" will resume his old position at guard.

John Deen, one of the leading football stars of the past season, while not a basketball letter man is considered a regular and will practice at center. He leaves nothing to be desired while playing guard however, and will probably see service there part of the time. Frank Beck is a candidate who will be watched.

Among other men on the floor who are capable of being listed as among the most promising are, Carrol Flee, Russell Flee, and Sam Nelson. The list is rapidly growing.

Interest in basketball circles is high and there is already talk of the time when the team will go to the South-central Ohio tournament at Greenfield to try for the championship honors which it lost last year.

WOMAN WANTED FOR SHOOTING IS INTERVIEWED

San Antonio, Texas, December 7.—Clara Smith Hamon, who has been widely sought since Nov. 21 for the fatal shooting of Jake L. Hamon, millionaire oil man and Republican national committeeman of Oklahoma, at Ardmore, Okla., in an interview last night is said to have confessed that she fired the shot that caused Hamon's death and said she was willing to stand trial and "let God and a jury of 12 tried and true women judge her act."

Mrs. Hamon grieved through the long and tragic circumstances leading to the killing of Hamon, his courts, his faults, his virtues and many little incidents that marred their happiness through the long years of their association in a voice choked with emotion and deadened with grief. The story was told to a correspondent on a lonely road about 28 miles from here.

MUSKINGUM CLUB WILL APPEAR HERE

Of more than usual interest is the announcement that the Muskingum Glee Club will appear here on Thursday evening, December 23rd, in the First Presbyterian Church.

The Club's appearance here will be under the auspices of the Women's Guild.

Professor Weiss is the instructor and leader of the Club which has a membership of twenty-five. String quartets and the vocal quartet are said to be features of the organization.

DRILLERS BUSY IN TWO COUNTIES

A great deal of interest centers on drilling activities in Jackson and Vinton counties, where some fifteen outfits are busy on wells which are expected to bring in gas or oil.

A two million foot gasser was drilled in on the Hertenstein farm near the line between the two counties, and new territory is being opened that promises to help keep the gas supply at present level for some years.

OVERALL FACTORY HAS REOPENED

All will be glad to know that the Hillsboro Overall Factory resumed operations Wednesday, and the majority of the former employees returned to the positions which they had held in the concern. It is very gratifying to the community to know that this enterprise which offered employment to quite a number, is now a hive of industry.—Hillsboro Gazette.

RODECKER'S NEW STAND

DAUGHTERY MENTIONED

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 6.—Speculation about the possible cabinet selections of the incoming administration was cast into more definite lines today by consultations between President-elect Harding and leaders of his party in and out of Congress.

Three names which stood in the foreground tonight among the many discussed, as possible cabinet members were those of John W. Weeks, of Massachusetts for Secretary of the Navy; Will H. Hays, of Indiana, the Republican national chairman, for Postmaster General, and Harry M. Daugherty, of Ohio, the Harding pre-convention manager for Attorney General.

Prominence also was given to the possible selection of David Jayne Hill of New York, former Ambassador to Germany, as Secretary of State, although such leaders as Hughes, Root, Knox, Lodge, Fall and others still were prominently mentioned for the portfolio in some quarters.

That no formal offers had been made, however, was emphasized by Mr. Harding himself tonight.

SEE MANY SHOPPERS ARE IN EVIDENCE FROM OTHER PLACES

With Christmas almost three full weeks away this city is already becoming a center for the holiday shopping for all surrounding towns and scores of strangers on the streets here are daily in evidence.

The shops have donned in almost every instance, their full Yuletide attire and are ready to serve the needs of the heavily buying local patrons as well as the visitors.

Last year set a record mark for Christmas shopping but this gift giving season will approach it in every degree, it is believed.

Among towns most liberally represented, aside from Jeffersonville, Bloomington, Good Hope, Milledgeville, and New Holland which have come to be known as almost local customers Greenfield is contributing a big share and other cities of equal distance will also contain homes whose Christmas supplies will bear the trade marks of local stores.

ANNOUNCES PLAN FOR UNION STOCK YARDS PROJECT

Plans Announced To City Council Would Make City Big Shipping Center.

Removal of B. & O. Stock Yards To Newly Acquired Land Included.

Farm Bureau Promises Cooperation With Patterson Brothers.

A very promising proposition was outlined before City Council Monday evening when Joe Patterson, prominent stock buyer, speaking for the Patterson Bros. Buying and Shipping Company, asked the assistance of the public in erection of union stock yards along the Baltimore & Ohio railroad tracks, on land formerly owned by Dr. O. D. Maddux.

Mr. Patterson asked council for the improvement of Delaware street from East Point street to its termination and the improvement of one block on Western avenue leading to the proposed site of the stock yards.

Following the sale of the Maddux land to Mr. Patterson about three weeks ago when the fifty acres were purchased, persistent rumors were afloat that the construction of a Union Stock Yards was under consideration. Careful investigation showed the reports to be true but it was not given out officially to the public until Monday evening when Mr. Patterson and associates, including representatives of the Fayette Farm Bureau; J. D. Boone, representing the Washington Metal Products Company; and R. R. Kibler, B. & O. Agent, announced their desires to the council body.

Under the plan of Mr. Patterson, it is understood he expects to spend close to $75,000 in constructing the pens and equipment. What Chicago is to western states in hog buying, Fayette county bids fair to be to counties in this part of the state as a live stock buying and shipping center.

Mr. Patterson stated to inquiry to a councilman that he proposed to start building about March 1.

To Move B. & O. Pens

When Mr. Patterson had finished speaking he asked that Agent Kibler be allowed to take the floor.

Mr. Kibler stated that it was the plan of the B. & O. railroad to move their shipping pens and that the railroad proposed to consolidate its shipping facilities with the union yards of Mr. Patterson.

It is only a question of time, said Mr. Kibler, when the B. & O. pens must be moved and this will afford the opportunity.

Farm Bureau Endorses

Representing the Fayette Farm Bureau and the shipping association of the organization Frank M. Rothrock and H. W. Wilson expressed full approval of the project.

Both men declared that the Farm Bureau was offering its fullest cooperation to the union yards plan and that the value of the proposition was in the thousands of dollars to the Fayette stock producers.

Mr. Rothrock said, "We ship over $25,000 worth of hogs every week, when we are shipping, to say nothing of the sheep and cattle. We can save the farmers of Fayette county in one year $100,000 but we must have covered pens and the pens must be accessible for use. Delaware street must be improved and the Western avenue improvement should also be granted."

In speaking of the desired street improvement in order to assist in the union yards project Mr. Wilson said:

GREETINGS, PETE!

Here I am tonight in Winston-Salem where more tobacco is manufactured than in any other place on the face of the earth!

When I knocked off for the day, I buzzed around like a hungry bee in a buckwheat field—up and down long streets of R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories!

As the Reynolds enterprise proved out more and more gigantic and I talked with more men about it, I got the real and true answer as to why Camels are so good and so entirely different from any other cigarette! I'll spin it for you, old top—listen:

Every man I talked with made the one big point that the officials and the more than 350 Reynolds foremen have an inborn knowledge of the tobacco business; that (putting it into a North Carolina expression) they were virtually "born and raised in a tobacco patch"; that they know tobacco; how to grade it, blend it, and how to manufacture and sell it!

And, what's most important of all, Pete, these Reynolds folks sure give men what they want—the best that can be produced! Why—Peter, it took months to perfect Camels Turkish and Domestic blend—and that refreshing flavor—and wonderful mild, mellow body!

Tomorrow, I'm going to meet some of the Reynolds folks. Got to see inside of those factories!

And, you know me!

Shorty.

BANKS OBTAIN MORE RIOT GUNS

Since the recent holdup of the bank at Kingston and more lately the one at Grove City, virtually every bank in Fayette county has added to its gun equipment one or more guns that are meant for deadly business, and the "riot gun" is the prime favorite, although others are adding high powered rifles to their equipment.

While no definite information is given out, it is understood that weapons for use in case of a daylight robbery are to be found in other strategic points besides the banks, so that bank robbers or other daylight robbers would meet with a warm reception in attempting to hold up local banks or in fact any bank in Fayette county.

When the Mercury Drops - look to the Motor Lubricant

MOTOR OILS which lubricate correctly in the warm months are often unfitted for use in winter.

They congeal in cold weather and don't start lubricating until the heat of the engine has made them fluid.

The right oil for winter lubrication is an oil of sufficient "cold test" to flow freely at low temperatures.

It starts lubricating at the first turn of the engine—doesn't wait for the heat generated by gas explosions (and steel rubbing against steel) to make it fluid.

It pumps easily, keeps oil passages clean and reaches the closely fitted bearings quickly. Its liquid film of oil on cylinder walls and bearings keeps the engine flexible, reduces strain on batteries and starting motor and maintains full compression.

If you haven't already done so, change now to a low "cold test" lubricant that will protect vital motor parts in the coldest weather.

Polarine Motor Oil is such a lubricant. It is scientifically refined to provide sufficient "cold test" and the correct body to maintain a perfect piston-to-cylinder seal. Polarine flows freely at temperatures close to zero. It keeps a protecting film of oil over bearings at all times.

Its use means longer motor life.

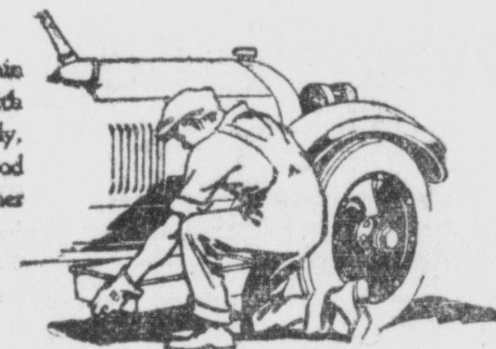

Winter lubrication of transmission and rear axle gears and bearings is equally vital. Ask for Polarine Transmission Lubricant "A". It meets cold weather requirements.

THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY

(An Ohio Corporation)

Whatever oil you use, drain the crank-case and refill with fresh lubricant frequently. Every 750 miles is a good rule in winter, when richer fuel mixtures dilute the lubricant faster. Have the garage-man drain out your old oil and refill the crank-case with Polarine.
